

WWC Service Day August 22, 2008

A Warren Wilson College Tradition

Every incoming class closes orientation week and begins its academic year with a day of service in our local community. This year you & your peer group will have an opportunity to spend the day working on projects with community partners like the Town of Black Mountain, Presbyterian Home For Children, McCune Center for the Elderly and the Swannanoa Women's Prison Facility.

Projects involve river clean-up, building planter boxes, picnic table repair, landscaping, debris removal, painting, mulching, planting & weeding!

WWC Service-Learning Office looks forward to your participation!

What to expect besides ice-cold watermelon after a hard day's work?

All new Warren Wilson Students, Peer Group Leaders, WWC Staff & Faculty, Resident Directors & Assistants, even the President of the college, reports to Kittredge on Friday, August 22nd at 8:30 AM to be bussed to worksites.

Around 4 PM you'll be bussed back to campus!

What should I wear ?

Due to poison ivy, insects & extreme sun exposure at some worksites

SLO & our own WWC 'Safety-Sue' insists you wear

Long PANTS and a Long-Sleeved Shirt appropriate for August HEAT

Closed-toed shoes, Work Gloves & a Hat!

What should I bring ?

WWC is environmentally conscious: Students bring bottles; We supply water.

A vegetarian lunch will be provided at the work site.
